

I have been informed that the new broadcast service known as Low Power FM may eliminate a radio station I listen to regularly. KLOVE which I listen to on 90.9 is a wonderfully uplifting station with great music. Please reconsider displacing much listened to stations with LPFM. If there is a way to have both, that would be great! Thanks for your time.